NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
November 9, 2012

Riverside Community Bank's Amy Brewer Named One of the 2012 People You Should Know

Rockford, IL — Amy Brewer, Riverside Community Bank Vice President for Commercial Banking and a Team Leader has been named one of the 2012 Twenty People You Should Know by the Rockford Chamber of Commerce. All twenty were honored during the Chamber's second annual People You Should Know celebration held recently in Rockford.

Brewer, along with the other honorees, was chosen for her civic, economic, professional and cultural contributions to the Rockford area. "I'm very humbled to be recognized by my peers," said Brewer. "I grew up here and to be recognized for what I've done for the community through my professional and civic accomplishments is very exciting for me." Brewer has taught budgeting skills to students in Junior Achievement, helped secure an apartment building for woman recovering from substance addiction, and took part in a fundraising dance competition to raise funds for Family Counseling Services.

A selection committee chose this year's class after reviewing more than 60 nominations. Brewer can be reached by phone at 815-484-7509 or by email at abrewer@riversidecommunity.com

###

About Riverside Community Bank
Riverside Community Bank is a member of Heartland Financial USA, Inc. Riverside Community Bank has assets of $424 million with four banking centers and an extensive ATM network, many in Road Ranger convenience stores throughout the Northern Illinois area. The bank offers a wide array of credit services, wealth management, investment services and deposit accounts, all with a focus on personal service. Member FDIC. Equal Housing Lender. www.riversidecommunity.com.